GAS, POWER PRODUCTION EXPAND

WARSAW GASWORKS MEET SEMI-ANNUAL PLAN -- Rzeczpospolita, No 149, 1 Jun 49

On 28 May 1949, the Municipal Gasworks in Warsaw produced 16,200,000 cubic meters of gas thereby fulfilling planned production for the first half year. The 1949 planned gas production is 34 million cubic meters.

The installation department of the Gasworks plans to install 6,200 gas meters during 1949. The entire responsibility of supplying Warsaw with new gas meters rests with the Gasworks' workshops, which to date have repaired 3,822 gas meters. Over a 4-month period, 3,437 gas meters were installed. Gas meters ordered from Torun and Tczew have been greatly delayed; however, because of the great effort made by the workers at the Gasworks, Warsaw's needs will be satisfied up to 22 July 1949.

As of 1 May 1949, there were 37,260 gas consumers. The 1949 plan estimated 36,000 consumers.

The gas consumption per resident is steadily growing. In March it was 5.7 cubic meters per resident and in May it was 5.9 cubic meters.

At present, there are 377,220 meters of gas pipe installed in Warsaw. Over a 4-month period, 12,585 meters of gas pipes were installed.
